Dear Third Secondary Students – Class of 2024,

I am ecstatic to congratulate you all today on your success. Not only were you able to prove that you can face all your fears and worries, but also with persistence and resilience, you have been able to prove that your expectations and dreams are far more indispensable than any thrill or threat.

We are proud of our New Ramses College students and warriors. We hope you have the brightest future ever. We are sending you in life to conquer your dreams, remembering that “Through hard work, perseverance and a faith in God, you can live your dreams.”

Best Wishes,

College Director
