The General Secretariat of the Synod of the Nile Schools is hiring a new principal for Ramses College for Girls.

As head of RCG, you will be in charge of overseeing every aspect of the school, from academic leadership to strategic planning, supporting all students and financial stewardship.

To succeed in this role, you should be able to make quick decisions under pressure and have a comprehensive understanding of national and international education systems and regulations. Excellent leadership, communication and organizational abilities are also important skills you should demonstrate as a principal.

Qualifications

- Previous experience in education administration, management or higher graduate degree in education.
- Knowledge of school administrative processes and national/international educational regulations.
- Hands-on experience with MS Office and education management systems.
- Excellent spoken and written English.
- Great presentation and communication skills.
- Good leader with proven ability in handling conflict, relationship management and teamwork.
- Strong organization and time management skills.

If you meet these requirements and you are passionate about a leadership role in education, we would like to meet you. Please apply (link for application through QR Code). Deadline for application is August 1, 2024.
